

CENTRAL INFORMATION COMMISSION, NEW DELHI
TRANSPARENCY AUDIT:

Public Authority::Central Water and Power Research Station

On perusal of audit report the following shortcomings were noticed:

Point:1.1.3, 1.2.3, 1.7.3: It was seen that information in respect of organization's vision, mission and key objectives was partially disclosed. Rules/orders under which powers/duties have been derived are partially disclosed.

-details of boards/councils/committees constituted , their tenure of function etc., was partially disclosed.

Point: 1.11.1,1.11.2: Information in respect of No. of employees against whom disciplinary action taken/pending/penalty etc imposed, not disclosed.

Point: 1.12.1,1.12.2, 1.12.3: It is seen that educational programmes to advance understanding of RTI, efforts made to encourage public authority to participate in these programmes, is not properly disclosed. Information in respect of training of CPIOs/APIOs not disclosed properly.

Information in r/o foreign/domestic tours of senior officers, budget/expenditure incurred/tenure of tour not disclosed.

Information in respect of name/title of documents/records and their location where available not disclosed properly.

Details of applications/appeals received under RTI provided partially. Link providing details of CPIOs/FAAs( current/earlier) not working and could not be accessed. Similar was the position in respect of appointment of nodal officers.

Organization must update the information on the website in respect of contact numbers of key persons i.e. their telephone numbers/fax/email address on regular basis.

System of remuneration and detail of gross salary of concerned employees be disclosed on the website and the website should be updated regularly.

The Organization must up date its website in respect of information pertaining to RTIs/Appeals received and disposed of.

The Organization must also up date the information regularly in respect of names of current and earlier CPIOs/APIO/FAAs with the contact details i.e. telephone/fax/ email ID.

Clauses as mentioned to be 'not applicable' be revisited in terms of provisions of RTI Act. , and information/details on this account be disclosed on the website.

----

